

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SELFTRADE OFFERS INVESTORS ACCESS TO FIRST CLASS BOND RESEARCH

Selftrade – one of the UK’s largest online stockbrokers – has teamed up with Bondscape to offer customers access to online bond and gilt research, available at www.selftrade.co.uk.

At a time of differing fortunes for world equity markets, the latest addition to the Selftrade offering will provide information and analysis for the fixed income investor – something that’s not always readily available. In addition, not only will the new service provide investors with up-to-date information on price and yield, but also in-depth analysis of bond performance, “bond of the week” and model portfolio’s. The content supports Selftrade’s dealing service which offers clients access to a full range of Sterling denominated gilts and corporate bonds.

Stephen Barber, Product Manager at Selftrade says: “We are delighted to be able to offer our customers this new service. There is still little available research for those attracted to fixed income products. And with the recent volatility in global equity markets, it will support investors in creating stable, diversified portfolios. We hope people log on to www.selftrade.co.uk to find out more.”
