You must set up a Direct Debit instruction from a UK bank account to open a Selftrade account. Please check that your bank offers a Direct Debit facility for the account that you wish to nominate. You do not have to fund your account by Direct Debit.

This Direct Debit instruction gives you the flexibility to make payments at any time to and from your Selftrade account.

Funds will take at least three working days to clear. For immediate account funding, you can use a Switch/Maestro or VISA Delta debit card.

Selftrade will only execute trades if there are sufficient cleared funds available within the account to cover the cost of the trade.
